

Extreme Fuel and Flight Planning

Extreme fuel and flight planning is an important topic. Joe Kemmerer will provide not often thought about tips and information needed for IFR cross country fuel and flight planning. Come and learn how not to become another "ran out of fuel" statistic.

Directions: Drive into the Orlando Sanford Airport terminal main entrance and park in the short term parking. The meeting is in the rental car building, across from the main terminal, in the Vigilante Room. Bring your parking ticket to the meeting for validation.
